PSA Siquijor conducts Orientation on “Basic Civil Registration and Its Related Laws”

Orientation on Basic Civil Registration and Its Related Laws was part of the activities of the month-long celebration of February 2023 Civil Registration Month. This was done on 3 February 2023 at Siquijor Provincial Statistical Office with participants such as PSA personnel (newly hired regulars/COSWs), Statistical Researchers/ Field Interviewers of the different projects of PSA.

The training was primarily aimed at equipping personnel with knowledge on Civil Registration who are in front line service of the provincial office. They were the ones who will go out in the field for various statistical surveys and censuses for supervision and enumeration. They were provided with the right information on the salient features of civil registration, be able for them to disseminate properly information especially when they are out in the field or assigned as officer of the day at the provincial office. It is believed that trainings of this kind forms part of the continuing education to be able for them to provide the necessary information and guide the general public especially with their civil registration concerns. As we all know that civil registration concerns are the most frequently asked questions.

The lecturers for this activity were RO II Postrado and MCR Fernando Jose A. Pescante, Jr. of Siquijor, Siquijor.
