PSA Siquijor Conducts 2021 Mid-Year Performance Review Session

Chief Statistical Specialist Aurelia M. Canda gave her short message and opening remarks at the start of the two-day activity (2021 Mid-Year Performance Review).

The Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA), Siquijor Provincial Statistical Office despite the threat of COVID-19 pandemic still pushed a face to face activity which is the 2021 Mid-Year Performance Review. This is a regular undertaking of the office which aimed to assess on the performance and unmet targets for the first semester. On her welcome address, the Chief Statistical Specialist emphasized the key to improve one's performance in particular and the office in general could only be achieved through dedication, commitment and hard work. Furthermore, she also emphasized that timeline should be strictly observed and Phil-Awards as the guiding hand book be religiously followed. She added that there's no reason in the Year-End Performance Review become successful if the Mid-Year activities will be put in place and finely executed

The activity was held on 22 - 23 July 2021 at Coco Groove Beach Resort, Tubod, San Juan, Siquijor with participants who include all regular staff and Contract of Service Workers (COSWs) who greatly helped and contributed in the monthly, quarterly and semi-annual submission of reports.

The serenity and ambiance of the chosen venue was apt for exclusivity, right place for discussion and discernment of good ideas. Moreover, the place was very safe and conducive to learning. With the threat of corona virus spread which may infect one another, minimum health standard and safety protocol are strictly followed as per guidelines from the Inter-Agency Task Force (IATF) of Siquijor province.
