

Vital Events in Negros Oriental

January to June 2018

Registered Births

Total number of live births reached 9,045

The total number of registered live births in Negros Oriental for the first semester of 2018 recorded 9,048 of which 4,791 were male and 4,257 were female.

Dumaguete City has the highest number of live births

Dumaguete City, the Capital of the province of Negros Oriental still recorded the highest number with 880 registered live births in the first semester of 2018.

Marriage is a special contract of permanent union between a man and a woman entered into in accordance with law for the establishment of conjugal and family life.

Total number of registered marriages reach 4,183

There are 4,183 registered marriages for the first semester of 2018 in Negros Oriental. Dumaguete City has the most number of registered marriages of 427. This is 10.2 percent of the total marriages in Negros Oriental for the period.

4,025 deaths were recorded

There were 4,025 registered deaths in Negros Oriental for January to June 2018 of which 2,270 were male and 1,755 were female. Dumaguete City has the most registered deaths with 501 while Jim Lalud has the least registered deaths with 49.

CONTACT US

3F Purple Building, Bypass
Dumaguete City, Negros Oriental

(035) 422-4372
(035) 422-4374

psa07.negrosoriental@gmail.com

www.psa07.nso.gov.ph
www.nso.gov.ph